To whom it may concern:

This lawsuit against a great American company is ridiculous. The first lawsuit against the Bells did have merit, but in the end the gov broke up the bells and now you have bad service.

I work for a Major retailer in the U.S. and sell both Microsoft products and product from their competition, and I have to say that the Microsoft Corp. goes all out and improves peoples lives, by making their technology easy and affordable to use.

These lawsuits need to cease and we, as a nation need to come together and pull this nation together.
